On Pesakh there's a wine glass that has no brim
On Pesakh there's a fish that cannot swim
On Pesakh there's some matza that cannot break
On Pesakh there is drinking no thirst to slake.

How can there be a wine glass that has no brim?
How can there be a fish that cannot swim?
How can there be some matza that cannot break?
And how can there be drinking no thirst to slake?

The kos of Eliyahu, it has no brim
A fish when it's gefilte cannot swim
When matza's in a kneydl, it cannot break
We drink the arba kosot no thirst to slake.
