Come friends of the wedding, a toast let us sing
To the khosn and kale good wishes we bring
Come all you relations on whichever side
We'll gladden the hearts of the bridegroom and bride. [singing...]

Mazel tov, mazel
Shalom u'brakha
M'sameyakh ha-khosn
Im ha-kala.

Here's to the k'tuba in all its detail
Here's to the kitl and here's to the veil
Here's to the brokhes for him and for her
Here's to the ring on her forefinger. [singing...]

Here's to your fathers and mothers also
Who embarked on this journey a long time ago
They walk down the aisle as parents – horim –
And emerge from the khupa as makhatonim. [singing...]

Here's to the khupa, above you it spans
You are wed in God's presence and also in man's Here's to the glass that the khosn will smash
As Mazel Tov! echoes and cameras flash. [singing...]

Come fill up your glasses and everyone rise
Drink a toast to the khosn and kala likewise
Lekhayim, lekhayim, lekhayim again
Shehekhyanu v'kiymanu v'higianu – omeyn! [singing...]

Mazel tov, mazel
Shalom u'brakha
