

Maybe We Should Just Make Love

I can not believe we have the evening free
We can stay at home tonight and watch TV
Pour a drink or two and play Monopoly
Or maybe we should just make love.

This would be the perfect time to cook or bake
Rustle up a sandwich or a chocolate cake
Order in a pizza for convenience's sake
Or maybe we should just make love.

Maybe we should smell the roses now and then
Tender sweet surrender when we feel the yen
Time's a-passing, baby, maybe now is when
We should put the old libido back in charge again—

I don't think we need a charm or voodoo hex
Seems to me, equipment-wise, we're up to specs
When exactly was it that we last had sex?!
Maybe we should just make—
Hey, we'll make the bed shake!
Maybe we should just make love!
