

So Love, Goodbye

I still recall
My dear, when all
Our dreams came tumbling down
We parted, friends
All odds and ends
If tears were seas, we'd drown
But still I find
You're on my mind
No matter what I do
I can't forget
I love you yet
My heart still longs for you.

 You'll never be
 The one for me
 I know for sure
 The love I need
 Is love indeed
 That will endure—

So love, goodbye
It's time to try
To find somebody new
A brand new start
To mend a heart
That wants a heart that's true
I hope that when
We meet again
We'll laugh as we recall
The love we had
Now past and sad
But somehow worth it all.
